News for the

“ON THE LINE”

Local 562 will try to put out an ON THE LINE issue every day or two. We need your help. Do you have anecdotes? pithy quotes? good jokes? salient stats? E-mail us, or drop off some hard copy when you sign in for your shift.

Solidarity at North

The first day on the line, members of the Ontario English Catholic Teachers Association arrived at the line with their flag and a box of donuts. Now, there's solidarity!

Check the Website Every Day

Where Do I Get My Cheque?

Pick up your paycheques (one from OPSEU Head Office and one from Local 562) in person. When you sign up for your picket shift, indicate by “N” or “L” where you plan to pick it up. We are hoping to get the cheques out on Wednesday, March 15.

OPSEU Local #562

Photos?

Do you have a digital camera? If you want to share your picket photos, burn them onto a CD and leave them at Strike Headquarters when you sign in.

Aching Muscles?

Prevent picket line soreness with an Epsom salts bath. Epsom salts are cheap, and available at most drug stores. Dissolve a cup of salts in a hot bath and enjoy a long soak before bed. You may want to shower afterwards.

Turn Up the Heat

E-mail addresses for every MPP and every newspaper editor in Ontario are available on the web at

“With 125,000 [OPSEU] members, we should be getting our message out to the Premier, to the Minister, and to every MPP every minute of every day,” says OPSEU president Leah Casselman. “Every editor of every newspaper in this province needs to see how strong the support is for these striking members.”
